FOLKSTORY READING REPORT

Folkstory Reading organised by the Department of English, GJBC, was organised as part of the Literary Events of the Ruby Jubilee Celebrations. It was held at Baptist English School, Serkawn, among the upper-primary and middle school students on the 13th October, 2023.

Ms. Lalhmingthangi Fanai, the Minute Secretary and Assistant Professor of the Department of English, hosted the event and a brief opening speech was delivered by the Principal of Baptist English School, Serkawn.

The event was divided into two sessions - the first session was held with the upper-middle school students, and the second session with the lower-middle school and upper-primary school students. Dr Judy Lalpamawii Khiangte kicked off the event in both sessions with an introduction to Mizo Folktales.

The introduction was followed by readings of Mizo Folkstories translated into English from two books: (i) Mizo Myths by Dr Cherrie Lalnunziri Chhangte, and (ii) Folklore from Mizoram and Hand-picked Tales from Mizoram by Margaret L. Pachuau.

The faculty members that took part were:

1. Dr. Judy. Lalpamawii Khiangte
2. Dr. Marlyn Lalnunmawii Sailo
3. Lalhmingthangi Fanai
4. Lalrinpuii Chhangte
