ELOCUTION COMPETITION REPORT

An Elocution Competition was organised by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in collaboration with the District Election Officer, Lunglei, and ZONET JB on 12 April 2024, 10:30 AM at the Multipurpose Hall, GJBC. The programme's objective was to foster an understanding of the significance of voting and motivate viewers to participate in the forthcoming elections. Funding was provided by the DEO while ZONET JB was the media partner for the event. The competition was attended by students of the college with ZONET JB documenting the entire programme for broadcast on the local channel.

The competition was hosted by Ms. Lalramhluni, ZONET JB. A total of 12 students from across the various departments of the college took part in the competition. Three judges were appointed from the college faculty: Mr. F. Lalromawia, Asso. Prof., Department of Geography; Ms. Lalsangpuii, Asso. Prof., Department of Public Administration; and Mr. R. Vanlalmangaihsanga, Asst. Prof., Department of Political Science.

The participants gave inspiring and eloquent speeches, highlighting various topics related to the upcoming elections. The participants discussed the significance of voting, the pivotal role of youth in elections, and the advantages and disadvantages of the current political landscape in the state, among other topics.

Mr. F. Lalromawia then represented the judges, providing commentary on the participants' performances. He offered a critical analysis of the speeches, highlighting the strengths and areas for improvement in each presentation, emphasising the clarity of arguments and the persuasiveness of delivery. Mr. Lalromawia also commended the participants for their engagement with the subject matter and encouraged them to continue refining their public speaking skills.
